

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

UK's First Caribbean Culinary Tours Specialist
Capture the Flavours and Spirit of the Caribbean

UK, February 2012

Lime Tree Lane is the UK's first tour operator to specialize in cooking holidays to the Caribbean, offering holidaymakers and food enthusiasts alike the opportunity to relax, holiday and acquire the skills to cook like the locals during one of their fully escorted 7 to 10 day culinary tours to the region.

The Current portfolio includes Caribbean favourites such as: Antigua, Anguilla, Barbados, Grenada, Jamaica & St Lucia which deliver very distinctive culinary, cultural & scenic diversity. Groups stay in a host of superb 4 & 5 star boutique properties, which provide an intimate setting for classes, tastings and demonstrations during each gastronomic adventure.

All of Lime Tree Lane's holidays provide guests with a hands on opportunity to cook traditional & contemporary island cuisine with award winning chefs, along with visits to Local Organic Farms, Plantations, Markets and Distilleries.

All meals are included and are a combination of fare prepared by the group and select local restaurants.

Cooking in the Caribbean is an opportunity for food enthusiasts to learn something new in very special surroundings. With itineraries designed to capture the essence of the Caribbean kitchen, whilst allowing individuals to enjoy many conventional elements of a Caribbean holiday.

Founded in 2009, Lime Tree Lane was born out of a love of all things Caribbean. We have created our tours and products to reflect the atmosphere and lifestyle of the islands.

Managing Director Sharon Hope has said....

Our Culinary Tours aim to celebrate the Colour, Warmth and Natural hospitality of the Islands. We look forward to bringing a taste of the Caribbean to food enthusiasts around the world both at home and away. As always we ask all to "Spread the Sunshine".
